"1" = Yes

No entry = No

"1" means that a respective institution/organization has at least one representative office in the respective country. Therefore numerous representations (for example several consulates in one country) are not portrayed in this overview.

* This document is an overview of German public structures abroad, that makes no claim to be exhaustive or entirely accurate.

 The country list contains states, provinces and territories. The term "country" is used without prejudice to any government's position on the status of any given country or region. Furthermore the country title may be not identical to the full official title from an international law perspective.
